

Family Cardboard Art Workshop with artist Ann Weber Saturday, October 18, 2008 1:00-4:00 p.m.

Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to create your very own cardboard sculpture with the amazing Ann Weber! Learn how a simple cardboard box can turn into an animal, a boat, a person or modern art. The sky is the limit! Bring an adult with you to help you staple, glue or sew pieces of cardboard together to create whatever your imagination can come up with. Supplies included.

This class is open to children ages 8-12 with an adult. Limit 40 people.
Fee: $35 TMA members, $45 General (fee covers both child & adult)

Ann Weber received her M.F.A. degree at California College of Arts and Crafts and worked with ceramics for over 15 years before transitioning to cardboard. She has exhibited widely and has had numerous public and private commissions. Ms. Weber sculptures will be on exhibition at the Triton Museum from September 13–November 23, 2008.
